Educational Professionalism, Migration, and Multilingualism

2nd International Workshop with Visiting Professor Ofelia García (City University of New York)
International Faculty, University of Cologne

About the Workshop

Ofelia García's work on bilingualism, bilingual education and translanguaging is closely related to social justice and educational equality issues. The 2nd international workshop with her provides an in-depth look at empirical data from the SINTER project "Educational Professionalism, Migration, and Multilingualism in Canada (Montreal, Quebec), Germany (Cologne, North Rhine-Westphalia), and Greece (Athens and Thessaloniki)" (Principal Investigators: Prof. Argyro Panagiotopoulou, University of Cologne & Prof. Lisa Rosen, Osnabrück University). In addition, it aims to promote discussion and exchange among visiting educational researchers and social scientists from Austria, Germany, Greece, Luxembourg, Switzerland, and the United States.
